

The Questions of Abortion

- Is abortion something I want, or are others pushing me that way?
- Will my boyfriend stay with me after the abortion?
- What will abortion do to my body?
- What will abortion do to my baby?
- Is abortion worth the physical and mental risks?
- Is abortion really a quick solution for an unexpected pregnancy?
- If I have an abortion, can I tell others about it, or will I be ashamed and sad?
- Is abortion morally right?
- If I have an abortion, will others support me after the abortion is over?
- Is abortion something I want to do for me, or am I thinking of others and the baby?

The Questions of Adoption

- How can I choose the right couple to be parents for my baby?
- If I choose an open adoption, how often will I be able to see my baby?
- Will I be able to write to my baby or send gifts?
- How can I get support after my adoption to continue growing in my life?
- Are there any people who have adopted out whom I can talk to first?
- If I choose adoption, will there be people around me to help with the process?
- Am I willing to do what is right and save my baby's life, even if I may lose a boyfriend?
